What is a 'Notice'?

A notice is a formal means of communication targeted at a person or a group of persons. It is like a news item informing such person or persons of some important event, issue of instructions or making appeal.

It is generally written and pinned on notice board or displayed at a public place. The government, for a wider audience, issues notices which are published in national/local newspapers.

Format of a Notice

Since notice is a formal communication it should follow a structure or format. Notices written in different formats by organizations/institutions can show some variations. Hence, it is important to follow a format followed by many and most importantly, as per CBSE guidelines.

Format of a Notice

1. Name of Issuing Organization/Institution/ Authority

The name of the organization/institution/authority should be written at the top of the notice in capital letters to help the reader identify the notice as important or unimportant to him.

Title of a Notice

2. When writing a notice we mention a title “NOTICE” placed below the name of the organization/Institution/Authority aligned at the centre. This can also be written in running handwriting as “Notice”.

Date of a notice

3. After the title, we mention the date of issue of the notice to the left-hand margin of the notice. Since it is a formal document, date is an important aspect of it as the document stays on record.

The date can be written using any one of the following format:

DD MM YY

MM DD YY

Heading of a Notice

4. The notice must have an appropriate heading. This heading should make clear the purpose of the notice. This should be placed just above the body of the notice, limiting it to 4-6 words.

Signature and Designation of the Authority Issuing the Notice

5. At the end of the notice the name of the writer of the notice should be written in capital letters. The notice has to be signed by the same person to give it authority and validity followed by name in capitals and designation below it.

Body of the Notice

The body/content of the notice should be precise and clear as it is a short format of writing. A good notice should answer the following 5 'wh' word questions:

1. What: The event
2. Where: The location/venue of the event
3. When: The date and time of the event
4. Who: The person(s) the notice is addressed to
5. Whom: The appropriate authority to contact

Some useful tips on notice writing

- Be precise and accurate. Strictly follow the word limit(50 words).
- Notice being a formal communication, language should be formal. No flowery text.
- Use Present Tense and Passive Voice.
- Draft the notice using the appropriate format.
- Present the notice in a rectangular box.
